

INDEX TO ARTHUR'S HOME MAGAZINE.

VOL. XI.—FROM JANUARY TO JUNE, 1858.

A Beautiful Truth,	24	The Old Kitchen Fire—The House in the Action,	27	Meadow—Quiet—June—Women should be
"Always Singing;" by F. H. Stauffer,	97	better than their Husbands,	300
A Page of Varieties,	100	Eleanor Herbert; by Mrs. Caroline Orne,	285
A Puzzled Yankee; by Paul Laurie,	130	For the Anniversary of our Wedding Day; by
Art and Nature:		Alma Grey,	20
No. I,	171	Faith; by Sarah J. C. Whittlesey,	224
No. II,	219	God's Gifts; by Mrs. Harriet E. Francis,	132
No. III,	267	HINTS FOR HOUSEKEEPERS:
A Few Words to the Girls; by Aunt Hattie,	197	The Old Dominion Coffee Pot—Economical
Antipathies,	219	Eating—Bread—Syrup of Coffee—Indian
Bulwer's Literary Habits,	25	Griddle Cakes,	48
Beauty's no Armor for the Heart; by Earica,	43	Tea Drinking in China—Indian Corn as
BOYS' AND GIRLS' TREASURY:		Food—Mrs. Hale's Receipts for the Million
Paul Reynold's Letter; by Virginia F.	45	—Cheapest Food—Rancid Butter—Tea
Townsend,		Making—Syrup of Tea,	108
Frank Preston's Ride; by Virginia F. Town-	104	Boiled Corned Beef—Good Temper and Good
send,		Cooking—Cooking Dried Apples—Yeast—
Lucia Marsh's Journal; by Virginia F.	151	Hot Bread,	158
Townsend—My First Lesson,		Biddy and the "Old Dominion;" by Mrs.
Lucia Marsh's Journal; by Virginia F.	199	Sallie Jones—Silver Plated Ware,	202
Townsend—Science in Sport,		The Rind of Fruit Indigestible—To Preserve
Wild Flowers and their Teachings; by Har-		Citron or Melon Rinds perfectly Brittle land Coultas—Gracie's Ride; by Virginia		and Transparent—Penny Wise and Pound
F. Townsend—The Handcuffs—Always		Foolish—Observations on the Dressing of
Speak Reverently of your Mother,	245	Vegetables—To Prevent Food Burning to
Ellen's Mistake about Heaven; by Virginia		Kettle,	250
F. Townsend—The Child's Wishes; by		Liquid Glue—Syrups—To Preserve Eggs—
Clara Augusta—The Gordian Knot,	295	To Detect Dampness in Beds—To Make
Beyond the River; by M. C.,	238	Sandwiches—To Restore the Color to Ma-
Christmas Burs; by A. P. C.,	20	hogany—To Take Fresh Paint out of a
Christmas in Olden Time; by Virginia de For-	44	Coat—To Iron Silk—Egg Soup, for Inva-
rest,		lids—Pickle for Beef,	299
Changes; by Lucy N. Godfrey,	140	HEALTH DEPARTMENT:
Elsie's Trials; by M. D. R. B.,	13	Trouble Kills—Laziness,	49
EDITORS' DEPARTMENT:		Care of the Eyes—Healthy Recreations—
Out of Work—A Scrap from the Note Book		Cold Feet—The Best Inheritance,	157
of Laurie Todd—To Correspondents—The		Suggestions on Health, Breathing; by Hat-
Nest at Home—Coiffures—Handsome		tie Hopeful,	251
Middle-Aged Men,	55	Health and the Love of Nature—Cure of Corns,	294
What They Said—Bad Books and Papers—		Her Glove; by Minnie Mary Lee,	144
The Dying Favorite—Children's Books—		Hesper; by Wm. M. Briggs,	220
To Correspondents—Ida—An Article of		Home Pictures Framed; by Rosella,	225
Real Utility—The Art of Coloring Photo-		Hope; from the German of Schiller,	283
graphs—The Little Pilgrim,	114	Into each Life some Rain must Fall; by Fanny
Jessie Brown—Neapolitan Peasantry—To		Fales,	92
Correspondents—The Lesson is Yours—		Influence,	99
Forget-me-Nots—The Theatre,	160	La Tristesse; by Linnie Hood,	43
He Died Rich—A Noticeable Poem—Wives		Life's Shadows; by B. L. Baxter,	90
Should be better than their Husbands—		Letters to Cousin Esther Hale; by Virginia F.
Minnie Mary Lee—Pocket Money for		Townsend,	123
Wives—Man and Woman—A Bad Habit—		Lady Alice; by Lillias M—	132
Bachelor Editors—The Statue of Beatrice		Love's Influence; by Meeta,	176
Cenci—How to Make Money—Exhibition		Laurie; by Emily Hewitt Buzbee,	196
of British Art—People's Literary Institute		Lost and Gained; by Clara Augusta,	276
—To Correspondents—What the Press		L'Esperance Noyant; by Helen L. Bostwick,	277
Says—Words of Encouragement,	208	Mrs. Child and Miss Hosmer,	36
Now I Lay Me—Don't Be Afraid—Useful		MOTHERS' DEPARTMENT:
Occupation—A Fine National Song—A		Not as a Child; by T. S. Arthur—Rearing
Pleasant Bit of Humor—May—Kathleen,		Boys—Be Circumspect in Reproof and
the Village Belle—To Correspondents—		Control,	46
What Care I—The Unsuccessful—Some-		The Gift of the Departed—Sons—Teach thing to Feel Glad about—The Pratt Sew-		Children Self-Government,	106
ing Machine—Embroidering and Knit-		The Claims of Society upon Women; by ting Machines—The Young Governors,	255	Lucy N. Godfrey,	153

18, Feb. 1935
474046

INDEX.

A Beautiful Narrative—Our Daughters, For what is Woman Responsible—Personal Influence—"I Take Care of my Lambs— Home,	198	ing Caps—Bridal Costume—Morning Robe —Glove Box,	50
Mountains and Molehills; by Hattie N. Graves,	87	Fashions for February—Children's Dresses— Honiton Lace Cuff—The Turkish Bag— Morning Robe,	109
Mrs. Norton's Christmas Story; by Mary Loveall,	96	Fashions for March—Ottoman in Orne Fluted Embroidery—Book Cushion in Orne Knit- ting—Collar—Morning Robe—Infant's Robe—Infant's Shoe—Costume of Russian Boy—Morning Cap—Handkerchief Border,	154
Makeenac; by Wm. M. Briggs,	144	Fashions for April—Morning and Dress Caps,	205
Meetings; by Clara Augusta,	229	Fashions for May,	252
My Child; by Minnie Mary Lee,	284	Fashions for June—Brioche Cushion braided on Merino—The Drawing-Room What- Not—Children's Fashions,	297
New Publications, 54, 112, 159, 207, 234,	304	The Years,	70
Not Appreciated,	69	The Old Blue Cap; by Helen L. Bostwick,	77
Never Give Up,	89	The Little Grape Dealer; by Prof. A. M. Scott,	91
Our Nellie; by Enrica,	85	The Irish Woman,	93
Our First Fruits; by Maria E. Fellowes,	90	The Shepherd's Dog,	95
Only Here; by Virginia F. Townsend,	185, 230	The Wigginses Coming Down,	101
Our Grandfather; by Zulime,	276	The Mystery; by Lily Lea,	129
Properties and Preparation of Coffee,	98	The Trysting Tree; by Miss Mary A. Ripley,	131
Popular Flowers,	172	Travelling Incog; by Caprice,	133
Ralph Henry—My Boy; by Virginia F. Town- send,	278	The Angel Pain; by T. S. Arthur,	183
Religion in Common Life; by T. S. Arthur,	289	The Just and True; by Thomas Carlyle,	184
Suggestions to Parents,	24	The True Friends; by Mary J. Crossman,	221
Separating the Sexes in School,	27	The Paradise of Tears; by Enrica,	238
Snow Drop; by Mrs. C. Maria Landon,	36	There where She Left it; by Alma Grey,	268
Snow Visions; by Clara Augusta,	131	To a Lady, with a copy of Arthur's Home Magazine; by E. N.,	268
She is Happy Now; by Ellen C. Lake,	182	The Strange Bag; by the Author of Susy L.'s Diary,	269
Sonnet; by J. Starr Holloway,	182	The True Charm of Home; by Mary C. Gran- niss,	284
Signification of Ladies' Names,	191	Visit to a Lunatic Asylum; by Virginia De Forrest,	103
Stray Leaves from Clara Sims' Portfolio,	293	Withered Buds; by Waif Woodland,	34
The Wigginses,	21
The Last Word,	23
The Young Governess; by T. S. Arthur,	28, 78, 145, 192, 239
Tired! Tired! by Virginia F. Townsend,	37, 71
THE TOILET AND WORK TABLE:
Fashions for January; by Genio C. Scott, of New York—Dress for a Little Girl—Lounge-

ILLUSTRATIONS.

JANUARY.

1. The Nest at Home. (Steel Plate.) 2. Colored Fashion Plate. 3. Glove Box. (Colored.) 4. Chenille Card-Basket. (Colored.) 5. Newest and most approved Coiffures. 6. Handkerchief Border. 7. Sleeve Trimming, in Embroidery. 8. Christmas in Olden Time. 9. Embroidery for Chair Cushion. 10. Morning Robe. 11. Slipper in Application. 12. Infant's Embroidered Cloak. 13. Chemisette. 14. Slipper in Application. 15. Lounging Caps. 16. Bridal Dress. 17. Dress for a Little Girl.

FEBRUARY.

1. The Dying Favorite. (Steel Plate.) 2. Colored Fashion Plate. 3. Bridal Purse, in Crochet and Beads. (Colored.) 4. Crochet D'Oyley. (Colored.) 5. Crochet Mat for Toilet Candlestick. (Colored.) 6. Morning Robe. 7. Petticoat Trimming, in Embroidery. 8. Broderie Edging. 9. Crochet Edging. 10. Mosquetaire Cuff. 11. Lady's Berlin Travelling Bag. 12. Lady's Turkish Bag. 13. Honiton Lace. 14. Netted Curtain. 15. Children's Fashions.

MARCH.

1. Neapolitan Peasants. (Steel Plate.) 2. Colored Fashion Plate. 3. Ottoman, in Orne Fluted Embroidery. (Colored.) 4. Book Cushion, in Orne Knitting. (Colored.) 5. Collar. 6. Pattern for Embroidery. 7. Morning Robe. 8. Infant's Robe. 9. Infant's Shoe. 10. Costume of a Russian Boy. 11. Dress for a Little Girl. 12. Morning Cap. 13.

- Head Dress. 14. Handkerchief Border. 15. Guipure Insertion. 16. Dress for a Little Boy. 17. Dress for a Little Girl. 18. Slipper.

APRIL.

1. Italian Peasant Boy. (Steel Plate.) 2. Colored Fashion Plate. 3. Morning and Dress Caps. 4. Corner for Handkerchief. 5. Trimming for Working in Swiss Muslin. 6. Opera Cap. 7. Patterns for Embroidery. 8. Corners for Pocket Handkerchiefs. 9. Nature and Art. 10. The Pink. 11. The Ranunculus. 12. The Polyanthus. 13. The Cineraria. 14. The Verbena. 15. The Balsam. 16. The Petunia. 17. The Phlox. 18. The Hollyhock. 19. The New Epingle Puzzle. 20. Biddy in Rebellion.

MAY.

1. The Village Belle. (Steel Plate.) 2. Colored Fashion Plate. 3. Handkerchief Border. 4. Patterns for Braid Work. 5. Infant's Slip. 6. Silk Embroidery. 7. Braiding Pattern. 8. Bridal Basket. 9. Pattern for Patchwork. 10. Art and Nature, No. II.

JUNE.

1. The Happy Family. (Steel Plate.) 2. Colored Fashion Plate. 3. Morning Robe. 4. Patterns for Embroidery. 5. Patchwork. 6. Brioche Cushion, braided on Merino. 7. The Drawing-Room What-Not. 8. Children's Fashions. 9. Art and Nature, No. III. 10. The Gordian Knot.

50

100

154

205

252

297

70

77

91

93

95

101

129

131

133

183

184

221

238

268

268

269

284

103

34

Uni-

17

red

4.

orkerns

cer-

The

Cl-

16.

ock.

Re-

red

Pat-

Silk

dal

and

red

for on,

ature,